ENTRANCE CRITERIA

Our goal is to provide a recreation program in a safe and supportive environment that enhances the lives of all participants. Given our program staff to participant ratio of 1(staff) to 6 (participants), the following program entrance criteria have been established in order to ensure maximum safety for everyone in The Janet Pomeroy Center Children & Teen Department:

1. Not more than 2 children in wheelchairs (non-ambulatory) per group.
2. Children must be able to stay with the group with verbal prompting only.
3. Children who are physically aggressive (to themselves or others) may not be eligible for program.
4. Children who run away may not be eligible for program.
5. Children with the following medical needs are not eligible for program:
 - o Catheterization
 - o receiving injections
 - o tube feeding
 - o other skilled nursing care requirements
6. Parents must provide Janet Pomeroy Center staff with the name, number & address of an emergency contact person/family member in case you cannot be reached in an emergency (medical or behavioral).
7. Guardians are responsible for the condition of equipment that accompanies the client to the center (wheelchair, etc.). If it is deemed, by the Center, that the condition of equipment is not safe, the client may not be allowed to participate in the program until repairs are made and we deem it to be adequate.
8. Children who begin to exhibit any of the behaviors described in criteria 2, 3, or 4 may be demitted from program.
9. Every participant admitted to Janet Pomeroy Center must successfully complete a 30-day probationary period to establish the participant's appropriateness for our program and our ability to meet their needs.
